on a sound business basis, and comprises nearly all the cattlemen of Pima county. Many from outside are expected to join it shortly.

Discussion was held as to the route and outlay required for the purpose, it being stated by Mr. Walter Vail than an outlay of $2000 for the digging of two wells in the desert and building a boat to cross the Colorado River would be all the expense at present required. The boat will have a capacity of fifty head, and will cost, with cable, about $600. Mr. C. M. Burkhalter, agent for the Southern Pacific Railroad, appeared be-fore the meeting and submitted estimated rates, and asked that the association defer definite plans until rates on cattle can be obtained from the general freight agent of the railroad. At present the rate per head to Los Angeles is about $4.50, and the estimate for taking them per head by trail is $1.50. If a sufficient reduction be made in the rate some members of the association will favor the shipping of stock, as there is some danger of loss by stampeding in driving, though all are in favor of founding the trail for any emergencies much of which will constitute a reserve fund. At present the subscription is $4,450, contributed as follows: F. Maish, Vail & Gates, $2000; Thos. Driscoll, $1000; D. Markham, $500; F L. Proctor, $500; H. Buehman, $200; Henry Brothers, $250.

FOR PUBLIC PRINTING.

ial, as follows, until January 10, 1890;
